Hampton-Court, August 4.

THE following Addreſs to His Majeſty having been tranſmitted from Ireland, has been preſented to His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, one of the Lords Juſtices of that Kingdom.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a Quarter Seſſions held at Kill-mainham for the ſaid County, the 12th of July, 1716.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, with Hearts truly ſenſible of the Dangers we eſcaped by your Majeſty's happy and ſeaſonable Acceſſion to the Crowns of theſe Realms, and of the Bleſſings we have ever ſince enjoyed under your juſt and mild Adminiſtration, do humbly beg Leave to Congratulate your Majeſty upon the Suppreſſion of the unnatural Rebellion, begun and carried on in Great Britain by Papiſts and Perſons who call themſelves Proteſtants, yet endeavour to ſupport the Cauſe of a Popiſh Pretender, in Violation of the moſt ſacred Oaths and ſolemn Obligations.

Your Proteſtant Subjects in this County, who in the Time of Tryal diſtinguiſh'd their Zeal for the Succeſſion of the Crown in Your Royal Houſe, readily lay hold of the firſt Opportunity of their meeting together ſince the Reduction of the Rebels, to expreſs, in the moſt publick manner, their ſincere and unfeigned Satisfaction for the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms.

Our Abhorrence of the Practices and Deſigns of thoſe Traitors, is not leſs than our Affection and Loyalty to Your Majeſty; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will, with the' Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, oppoſe the Enemies of Your Government; and, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport Your moſt juſt and undoubted Title to the Crowns of theſe Realms.

Which Addreſs His Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Genoa, July 28. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria arrived here on the 16th Inſtant, and had four of our Nobility deputed on purpoſe to attend him during his Stay. The two firſt Nights he paſſed at a general Meeting of the Genoueſe Ladies, and the five laſt Nights at Balls, the laſt of which was on the Sea. For this Entertainment a kind of Theatre was erected on 8 great Lighters, and ſplendidly adorned; moſt of the Nobility were there; the Ball continued till Day, when the Prince coming aſhore went away Poſt for Milan. On the 26th arrived here Sig. Mari with 6 Spaniſh Men of War, and to Morrow or next Day they are to proceed to joyn the Pope's Ships and Gallies, and act with the Venetian Fleet againſt the Turks.

Venice, Aug. 1. On the 26th of laſt Month we received by the way of Otranto, Letters from our Fleet dated the 16th, which adviſe, that ſince the Engagement on the 8th there had not been any Action, becauſe of a Calm the next Day, after which the Wind turned contrary. The Turkiſh Fleet lay near Butrinto, repairing the Damage they ſuffered in the Fight on the 8th. In the mean time they had begun to land Troops on the Iſland of Corfu, and were continuing it, being obſerved at diſtance by our Fleet, which waited only for a fair Wind to bear down upon the Turks and attack them. Our Gallies and other light Veſſels which had lain for ſome Days near the Iſland of Merlere expecting the Auxiliary Ships of War, are returned to Corfu with the Man of War called the Triumphant Lyon, and the Tranſports which went from hence under her Convoy, there to land the Troops and Proviſions with which they were laden. General Schulenbourg was making all neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the Defence of the Town of Corfu. One of our Men of War, called the Holy League, with a good Number of Tranſports having on board Troops and Ammunition, ſailed this Week for Corfu; being preceeded by a light Veſſel to get Intelligence of the Station in which the Enemy keep. In the Fight on the 8th our Loſs was inconſiderable, no Perſon of Diſtinction being killed, except two Gentlemen of the Family of Cornaro.

Vienna, Aug. 1. Prince Emanuel of Portugal has paſſed thro' this City incognito, in the Way to Hungary, to make the Campaign with with Prince Engene; to whom the Emperour has diſpatched an Expreſs, with Orders to begin Hoſtilities againſt the Turks.

Ratisbon, Aug. 3. The King of Great Britain has written a Letter to the Dyet, notifying that he has recalled from hence his Miniſter, Mr. Whitworth, who having received his Credentials and Inſtructions to go to the Court of Pruſſia, in the Quality of His Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, will ſet out Poſt for Berlin on the 6th Inſtant. Advices from Peterwaradin of the 26th paſt ſay, the Turkiſh Army was fully aſſembled at Belgrade, and the Grand Vizier was expected there the ſame Day. After they had refreſhed themſelves a little, 'twas ſaid they would paſs the Save, and poſt themſelves in the old Trenches at Semlin; in the mean Time the Imperial Army was very quiet, and Prince Eugene's Deſigns intirely a Secret.

Hambourg, Aug. 11. Letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that on the 3d Inſtant the Lord Polwarth, Envoy Extraordinary of His Britannick Majeſty, had a private Audience of the King of Denmark. The Preparations for the Deſcent on Schonen were continued with the greateſt Application; the Czar had been in one of his Frigates to view the Coaſt of that Province, and 'twas reckoned that by the 20th Inſtant the Troops would all be ready for that Expedition. The Daniſh and Ruſſian Fleets were preparing to put to Sea, as were alſo the Britiſh and Dutch Squadrons to proceed with the Merchant Ships under their Convoy into the Baltick.

Bruſſels, Aug. 12. Monſieur Jaupain, Director General of the Poſts, returned to this Town on Saturday Night laſt from Vienna. By the Account he gives, we expect that the Marquis de Prié is now on his Journey to the Hague. The Count de Heliſſem, Preſident of the Council of Hainaut, is appointed one of the Commiſſioners for the Separation of Limits between the Auſtrian and the French Netherlands, in the room of M. Thiſquens, who is to go to Vienna, in order to ſerve as a Councellor in the Council of Flanders, which the Emperor deſigns to eſtabliſh in that Place, and to aſſiſt in forming the Plan for the future Government of theſe Provinces. This Day the Marquis de Weſterloo's Regiment of Horſe arrived here from Courtray, in the room of Deveniſh's Regiment of Foot, which is to continue in that Place, as being more proper for the Garriſon-Duty. 'Tis ſaid Count Kinigſegg has received Orders to prepare for his Embaſſy to Paris.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Treaſury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to the Sea Officers to the 31ſt of Decemb. 1715. according to His Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment in that Behalf; Theſe are to give Notice, that the ſaid Payments will begin to be made at the Treaſurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-Street, on Thurſday the 16th Inſtant, that all Perſons concern'd may then and there attend to receive what ſhall become payable to them; and not only bring with them the Affidavits requir'd touching their having not enjoy'd the Benefit of any publick Employment whatſoever, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their ſaid Half Pay, but alſo produce Certificates (if they have not already done it) that they have ſubſcribed to the Teſt, and taken the Oaths required by the Act of the laſt Seſſions of Parliament. And in caſe any of the ſaid Officers ſhall not be able to attend themſelves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpoſe, that the ſaid Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Perſons they are employ'd by. Dated at the Navy-Office this 3d of Auguſt, 1716.
